

Financial Agreement

The purpose of our Financial Agreement is to create a safe and loving environment in which we can have healthy discussions regarding our finances.

We agree to review this Financial Agreement together each Monday evening.

Before reading this agreement we will pray and ask our Higher Power to guide us.

We agree to honor our Communication Agreement while discussing finances.

We agree to balance our checkbook within 7 days of the statement's arrival.

We agree we will not charge without our mutual agreement to do so.

We agree to write down all money that has gone out weekly. (Monday or Tuesday)

We agree to take the necessary actions to create and then follow a spending plan.

We agree to invoke our Higher Power before any discussion regarding any aspect of our finances.

We agree to routinely pray together at night, expressing our gratitude for the abundance that is our to share and turning over our financial concerns to God, and asking God to remove all our blocks to a sense of financial security.

After reading this agreement together we will discuss the following:

1. What Debtors Anonymous work is planned for this coming week?
2. What money is on hand and how much is expected to come in this coming week?
3. What needs to be paid in the coming week?
4. What efforts are planned to create money this coming week?
5. Define any other financially related activities required this week.
